THE CENTER FOR ART AND MEDIA KARLSRUHE

- The ZKM Center for Art and Media in Karlsruhe is one of the world's most important museums, currently at fourth place in the ArtFacts global ranking.
- The ZKM was founded in 1989 with the mission of leading the classical arts into the digital age. Today, it is a globally unique cultural institution, a “mecca of the media arts” and a place of learning, research and exchange.
- The museum brings together all media and artistic genres. Arts such as painting, photography, and sculpture are highlighted in thematic exhibitions. Film, video, media art, music, dance, theatre and performance are also showcased at the ZKM.
- Located next door to the museum is the Filmpalast at the ZKM, an outstanding multiplex cinema.

Departing from Karlsruhe main station, take the tram line 2 to the stop “ZKM”.

RADOLFZELL AM BODENSEE

- Radolfzell is located on the shores of the Untersee, Lower Lake Constance, about 20 kilometers north-west of the city of Konstanz.
- No other place on Lake Constance has a longer walkable shoreline as Radolfzell. Therefore, a stroll by the lake is highly recommended.
- From the ruins of Homburg Castle, you can enjoy a magnificent panoramic view of the lake, the Alps, and Bodanrück hills.

Departing from Konstanz, Überlingen, Friedrichshafen, Singen, Engen, Basel, or Karlsruhe, you can reach Radolfzell directly by train. The Höri bus connects Radolfzell and the towns on the peninsula with Stein am Rhein.

HEIDELBERG CASTLE

- World-famous Heidelberg Castle is an icon of German Romanticism.
- Today, only its ruins remain, but they still offer spectacular views.
- With its picturesque bridge into the Old Town and its impressive architecture, a stroll through Heidelberg is always a special experience.

Departing from Heidelberg main station, take bus 20 to the stop “Rathaus/Bergbahn”. From there, take the funicular railway to the castle.

TREETOP WALK BLACK FOREST

- Sitting atop the idyllic Sommerberg in Bad Wildbad, the Treetop Walk lets you explore the local forest landscape from an entirely new perspective on the Treetop Walk.
- Stretching 1,250 meters in length and reaching up to 20 meters in height, the path winds through the impressive mountain forest, passing numerous educational and interactive stations.
- The highlight is the 40-meters-high, architecturally unique observation tower.
- The walk and the observation tower are easily accessible for wheelchairs and baby carriages/buggies.

Departing from Bad Wildbad station, the summer funicular railway takes visitors to the mountain station, from there, it's just a short walk.

HOHENZOLLERN CASTLE

- Located at the edge of the Swabian Jura, the castle is not a museum in the traditional sense but a dynamic place that attracts hundreds of thousands of international visitors every year.
- Art lovers can marvel at the collection of paintings, precious silver, and porcelain, as well as the Prussian king's crown.
- The castle is a popular venue hosting concerts, an open-air cinema and a Christmas market, among other attractions.
- Numerous hiking routes offer stunning views of the castle and its surrounding landscape.

OUTLETCITY METZINGEN

- Metzingen, located at the foot of the Swabian Jura about 30 kilometers south of Stuttgart, offers guests a charming city of fashion that rivals the world's top fashion capitals.
- A wide range of premium and luxury brands (from A for Armani to Z for Zegna) make Outletcity a prime destination for fashionistas.
- Metzingen offers both nature and architecture, and the city's history as a center of textile production can still be experienced everywhere.

From Metzingen main station, you can walk to Outletcity in just a few minutes.
